A SUDDEN DEATH

Causes the Failure of B. G. Arnold & Co., the New York Coffee Dealers.

And has a Depressing Effect on the Eastern Coffee Market.

The Firm's Liabilities Estimated at Two Millions of Dollars.

Notes from Washington—General Telegraphic Intelligence.

The Great Failure.

New York, Dec. 9.—Mr. McKee, assignee of the coffee house of B. G. Arnold & Co., who failed on Tuesday, has been interviewed. In reply to a question he said he was not prepared to make any statement of the condition of the firm, as Mr. Arnold did not want a wrong statement given out, and it would be the work of several days to arrive at the figures. Probably owing to the extent of the firm's transactions, a week would elapse before he would be able to report the assets and liabilities. At a meeting of the house he said he was confident the house could pay every dollar of its indebtedness. From other good authority it is learned that the liabilities of Arnold & Co. are about $2,000,000, of which from $600,000 to $900,000 was single name paper, a fact which shows the high reputation of the firm. This unsecured paper is distributed in small lots among the banks of this city and New England. The bank of New York, in which Mr. Arnold is director, holds $15,000 of the paper, all other obligations of the firm to it having been amply secured. As to the firm's assets it is roughly estimated they will show a surplus over liabilities of about $300,000, it was ascertained today. An informal conference of Arnold's creditors or personal friends took place last week, at which he made a statement of his affairs, showing the surplus of this amount. Some of the persons consulted advised a suspension while the others thought this was unnecessary and recommended the continuance of business.

The failure of Arnold & Co., was precipitated by the sudden death of O. G. Kimball, which had a very depressing effect on the coffee market, as it caused a feeling of uncertainty as to the condition in which he left his extensive business. It is reported his death was hastened by anxiety about his business affairs, but a friend of his in this city said to-day that Kimball had recently asserted his ability to meet all his obligations. The latter had no partner, and the shape in which he left his affairs is therefore a matter of conjecture. For a number of years Kimball operated in the coffee trade on a large scale in combination with Arnold & Co. and Banier, Dash & Co., of this city. It was said to-day that a rupture occurred about a year ago between the houses of Arnold & Co. and Dash & Co., and that since then they had not acted in concert. Kimball had remained friendly with both firms, but for the last year he had operated chiefly in connection with Dash & Co. in regard to the rumors circulated concerning the stability of the latter firm, it may be said they were positively denied by Mr. Dash, who declined several liberal offers of assistance.

Electricians in Connell.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—The annual meeting of the American Electrical society was held here, General Anson Stager in the chair. Twelve new members were elected. A paper by C. H. Haskins, on wires for telegraphic connections was read. Chairman Summers, of the executive committee; Wilson, librarian; and Chandler, treasurer, made reports. Professor Carhart reported on the Fitch chlorine battery. Phenomena in electro-chemical experiments were illustrated by Professors Carhart and Charles Wilson. The executive committee were instructed to pursue correspondence for the purpose of enlisting a full co-operation from eastern electricians, so as to unify and coordinate the work. Adjourned to the second Wednesday in June next.

Stage Robbery.

Brownwood, Tex., Dec. 9.—The east bound stage was robbed three miles east of here by two robbers, relieving the passengers of $165. They cut open the mail bag and took from the registered letters about $350.

Great Racing Programme.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Hauin is staying in Dublin. Laycock did good work on the river yesterday. He says he will row a race with Ross in from four to five weeks for £100 a side. If Ross consents the match will be ratified to-day. The proposed new regatta for American prizes will probably collapse, as the president of the company states that Riley and Hooper wish to quit England owing to the expense attending their stay, and ask that the regatta be held five weeks hence. But Boyd and Elliott want more time for preparation. Trickett declines to compete for the prizes, and Laycock will probably be unable to compete. Steamboat accommodation is also difficult to obtain on the Tyne.

Ancient Order of Hibernians.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 9.—The national directory of the Ancient Order of Hibernians concluded its session yesterday. The following appointments were made: George D. Plant, Chicago, vice-national delegate, vice H. Maguire, suspended; M. J. Cosgrove, Elmira, New York, national secretary, vice Thomas Flanagan, suspended; J. J. Sheehan, Fitchburg, Massachusetts, national treasurer, vice Bernard Doyle, suspended. Also the following appointments in their own body:

Thomas McNelis, Indianapolis, chairman, vice John Hart, suspended; P. McGinnis, New Haven, Connecticut, secretary; John Hogarty, Cincinnati, assistant secretary; Matt Curran, Louisville, treasurer, re-elected.

Accused of Killing His Son.

MILFORD, Pa., Dec. 9.—Several days ago the body of Thomas Burns, thirty-three years old, a manufacturer of pottery at Paupack, Pike county, was found lying in a room of his father's house with the top of the head blown off, and portions of the brains scattered over the floor. Near the body lay an empty gun. It was thought at the time the young man had accidentally shot himself, but the coroner's jury has just rendered a verdict to the effect that he came to his death by being shot by his father, Thomas Burns, sr.

General Ord Relieved.

GALVESTON, Dec. 9.—The News San Antonio special states that Gen. E. O. C. Ord, upon notification of his retirement from command of the department of Texas and active army life, vacated the office at headquarters, and ordered Assistant Adjutant General Vincent to report to General Sheridan until a temporary commander appears. As his son-in-law, General Trevinas, has been appointed minister of war of Mexico, it is rumored that that country will be the future home of General Ord.

Frank Leslie's Will.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Surrogate Colvin yesterday issued letters testamentary to Mrs. Frank Leslie as executrix under her husband's will. A motion by contestants for allowance of costs was refused on the ground that the contest was not conducted in that faith which entitles them to cost under the statutory exercise of surrogate's discretion.

Strange Railway Accident.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 9.—The west bound express train last evening met with a damaging accident at Coal Valley. One of the largest coal tipplers over the road had become out of plumb, so as to strike the side of the train, broke all the windows and severely cutting some of the passengers with broken glass. No lives were lost.

Counterfeiters Sentenced.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—George Giles, the counterfeiter, whose weeks ago escaped from the custody of the United States marshal by slipping the handcuffs while a fellow prisoner and threw red pepper in the marshal's eyes, was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.

Important Order.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The grain trade at the produce exchange has ordered that hereafter all contracts must be made in name of the members making the transaction, whether it be for himself or a customer.

Death of a Good Man.

Political malice has ceased, or pretended to cease, at the portal of the grave of this good old man. Blue Jeans Williams is pretentiously the sincerest mourner over his remains. If men who do this class of impostors detection have any conscience, it should give them trouble; and if they have any self respect, it is difficult to see how they can help hating themselves as heartily as they are hated and despised by the decent element of the community in which they exist. New lamps, new hand painted china, new cut glass, new gold band china, new decorated tea and dinner sets, new Majolica ware, new plated silver ware, new toilet ware, new complements of our three jolly dogs, at Ward's new store, on West Columbia street. Ward's cheap crockery store.

The Public Health.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 9.—The sanitary council of the Mississippi valley, with representatives from the states of Michigan, Kentucky, Missouri, Minnesota, Iowa, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Illinois and Louisiana, met and called a session this morning at 9 o'clock in Greenwald hall. Dr. R. C. Kedzie, of Lansing, Mich., president of the council, delivered a short address, setting forth the duty of the council in promoting the sanitary interests of the Mississippi valley. The executive committee, through the president, presented the following propositions for consideration and discussion:

First. What authority shall have charge of and be held responsible for the public health of the Mississippi valley so far as comprised by commerce and travel.

Second. Shall quarantine aim to keep infectious epidemic diseases entirely out of the Mississippi river or limit their spread after they have entered.

A long discussion followed the result of which was the adoption of the following:

WHEREAS, Experience has shown that measures of quarantine under sole direction of the local state board of health have not succeeded in protecting this valley from invasion from yellow fever; and

WHEREAS, Our people habitually view with distrust all announcements and sanitary acts of the local boards, when those acts and announcements are of a character to affect the commercial interest of the locality directly concerned.

Resolved, That in our opinion the general government alone, acting through its constituted sanitary agents, should have direct control of the National maritime quarantine council.

The council then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Another Body.

The third session of the American public health association opened this morning at 10 o'clock with prayer by Rev. Father Aubert. The advisory council reported the following selection of officers for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Charles B. White, New Orleans; first vice-president, Prof. R. C. Kedzie, Lansing, Mich.; second vice-president, Prof. Henry F. Campbell, Augusta, Ga.; secretary, Dr. Asel Ames, Jr., Waterville, Me.; treasurer, Dr. J. B. Barriett, Nashville, Tenn.; members of the executive committee, Drs. D. O. Hunt, Metuchen, N. J.; George M. Sternberg, United States army, E. L. Griffith, Fondulac, Wis.; J. G. Thomas, Savannah, Ga.; Thomas N. Wood, Wilmington, Md.; the report was adopted. Savannah, Ga., was selected as the point for holding the next annual session. Papers were read by Dr. H. H. Baker, Lansing, Mich.; on "The relations of schools to diphtheria and similar diseases." Dr. O. Wright, of Milwaukee, Wis., on "Management of contagious and infectious diseases in Milwaukee." Dr. T. S. Seales, Mobile, Ala., on "Municipal sanitation as practiced in Mobile for preventing the spread of yellow fever." Dr. G. C. Dewolf, Chicago, Ill., on "The results of attempting to check the spread of smallpox in Chicago."

Congressional.

Third Session of the Forty-Sixth Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—On motion of Mr. Pendleton, so much of the president's annual message as refers to civil service reform, the non-assessment of government employees for political purposes etc., was referred to a select committee to examine the several branches of the civil service with instructions to report at an early day by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. Davis, of Illinois, the senate resolved that to-day's adjournment be until Monday.

Senator Lamar Very Ill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—It is reported here that Senator Lamar will not be present at this session of congress. His health is very feeble, and his friends fear he will never be able to take his place in congress again. Against the advice of his physicians, he attempted to take part in the recent canvass. After making two or three speeches he was compelled to desist, and the effort did him serious injury. Mr. Lamar's malady is, it will be remembered, in the nature of paralysis, and it is understood that he has already suffered from three severe prostrations.

Mariner Thompson as Panama Canal Scheme Chairman.

PARIS, Dec. 9.—It is reported that Secretary R. W. Thompson, of the United States Navy, has been tendered the chairmanship of the Panama Canal Company. Mr. Thompson will accept if the position is regularly tendered him.

NOTE.

Secretary Thompson says he has sent no telegram about accepting such as that referred to. He says the position has not been tendered him by any one having authority to tender it.

Matters in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Dec. 9.—The land league is conducting the campaign in the north with considerable skill, modifying its programme and proceedings to avoid offending the prejudice of the people of Ulster. In that province there is quite a different tone in their speeches from that prevailing in other parts of the country, with a view to conciliating the Presbyterians, liberals and orangemen. The system of Boy Cotting has been applied to six detachments of constabulary in different parts of Ireland.

Railroad Collision.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Dec. 9.—A sleeping train over the Troy & Boston railroad came in collision with a freight train at Hoosic. The engine of the sleeping train wrecked the front portion of the mail and baggage cars. The engineers and firemen were saved by jumping the mail agent was unhurt. The train was running slow at the time.

A Hospital Speech.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Shaw Lefevre, M. P., in addressing his constituents at Reading, argued in favor of an amendment to the land laws. Despite the disorder in Ireland he had confidence that the measures of the government would restore peace and prosperity.

The Harbad Rebellion.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—A dispatch from Durban says the neck of the rebellion on this side has been broken and the Pondome have been entirely routed. The president of the Orange free state believes the rebellion will be completely subjugated in six months.

Passed them All.

ATHENS, Dec. 9.—After the storm of speeches which have irritated and wearied public opinion the chamber of deputies passed all the supplementary votes including 50,000,000 drachmas for the ministers of war and marine.

Fatal Affray Between Policemen.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 9.—Yesterday afternoon a terrible and fatal affair occurred between two well known police officers, in which Officer John Brophy was instantly killed by Officer William Casey. The two officers are watching on different beats in the locality of the Nashville railroad shops, and about the time named met in the little signal shanty at the railroad crossing on Kentucky street, between Ninth and Tenth. The two officers began to talk with each other, and, not being on very friendly terms, soon got into a regular quarrel. Both men were terribly in earnest, and as they met, Casey drew his knife at the same time Brophy got out his pistol. They separated after they first met, and both knife and pistol were brought into requisition. Brophy fired the ball striking Casey near the right shoulder, but whether the shot was fired before Casey had cut Brophy or not is uncertain. Both attacks were near the same instant. Casey jabbed his knife deep into Brophy's bowels, just over the right hip. Brophy did not fall at once, however, but striking Casey, knocked him down and jumped upon him. Casey then reached around his antagonist and attempted to stab him in the back, but before he could succeed a bystander secured his knife and dragged the two men apart. After being pulled off of Casey, Brophy said, "I am cut—cut bad," and turning on his side on an ash pile in the gutter, he died almost immediately. Casey was taken to his home immediately, on Oldham street, near Ninth. Brophy was picked up and taken into a room across from where the tragedy occurred. Casey's physicians say he has some chance of recovery.

Last Night's Caucuses.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 9.—The democrats and republicans held caucuses last night, the result of which cannot be obtained, but it is understood that they met for the purpose of deciding the future action of the parties on important measures now pending in congress. The discussion on Bicknell's electoral bill continues in the house. The republicans still obstruct its passage, but if the democrats get all their members here, they can pass it in spite of the republicans. The republicans are very aggressive this session, and flushed with their victory, are disposed to over-ride democrats.

Do not delay but go at once to Casak's, and secure your ticket, as either one of the prizes would make a splendid gift to yourself or children.

A meeting of those having the good and success of the democratic party at heart took place at the circuit court room last evening, and several good speeches and suggestions were made. One suggestion that a permanent organization should be kept up, a room rented for the purpose of holding meetings and storing the material during the last campaign met with general favor, and steps will no doubt be taken to further the idea. The meeting was harmonious throughout, and it is to be hoped that some good organization will be effected. A Gazette reporter was politely requested to retire from the room, which he did with the greatest of ease and gracefully bowed his adieu at the door.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—During the absence of the clerk from the drug store, at No. 679 Washington street, Wm. Wittenbrink, the porter, waited upon a customer who wished epom salts. Wittenbrink gave instead oxalic acid and only the prompt attendance of physicians saved the life of Mrs. Hackett, who had used a portion of a package. The porter was arrested.

A Murder Trial.

HONESDALE, Pa., Dec. 9.—Intense excitement prevails over the trial of Benjamin K. Burtrux for the murder of H. W. Shouse of Easton, Pa. When the aged prisoner was brought into court there was a scene of wonderful excitement; public opinion runs very strong against the prisoner and hopes of acquittal very slight.

YESTERDAY was indeed an era of murder. The telegraph brings intelligence of no less than eight.

THE Terre Haute Gazette speaks about the trial of "S. W. Hoffman," late city editor of "Christianity."

For the sake of decency it is hoped General Garfield's health is good. Remember who would succeed him if anything should happen.

SUBSCRIPTIONS to the Panama canal scheme are greater than was expected and De Lesseps is quite confident he will be a big man some day.

JUDGE TAYLOR, Garfield's successor in the house, is meeting with some embarrassment which threatens a contest. It is claimed his district ceased to exist with the new apportionment.

SENATOR McDONALD has introduced a bill in the senate providing for the taxing of greenbacks in those states where personal property, such as gold, silver, National bank notes, or any other form of currency, is taxed.

THE dissatisfied members of the English cabinet are enumerated as follows: The Earl of Salisbury, Lord Chancellor, Duke of Argyll, Lord Privy Seal Marquis of Hartington, secretary for India and W. E. Forster chief secretary for Ireland.

HAYES wants congress to make Grant a captain general, with a compensating salary. This, together with the half million now raising for the great American beggar ought to be satisfying. It looks as if there was a good deal of the hog about Grant.

SAM COX says that while he would be glad to see the number of representatives reduced to 250, he expects it will be increased at least to 300 and perhaps to 325. The house is big enough now, and it is an unfortunate fact that making it bigger will add nothing to the size of the men in it.

THE house resumed consideration of the senate concurrent resolution relating to the electoral count yesterday, which resulted in nothing further than notice being given of the introduction of the following concurrent resolution by Mr. Robinson:

Resolved, That the two houses will assemble in the chamber of the house of representatives, on the second Wednesday of February, 1881, at 12 o'clock; that the president of the senate shall be the presiding officer; that two persons shall be appointed tellers on the part of the senate, and two on the part of the house of representatives, to make a list of the votes as they shall be declared; that the result shall announce the state of the vote and the persons elected to the two houses assembled, as aforesaid, which announcement, together with a list of the votes, shall be entered on the journal of the two houses.

THE railroad and warehouse commission of the state of Illinois makes a showing of astonishing prosperity in the railroad business of Illinois during 1880. The returns are complete except from the Baltimore & Ohio, St. Louis and Southeastern roads and show that forty-six roads doing business in the state have earned during the year ending June 30, last $139,000,000. The expenses were $73,000,000 and the net income $66,000,000. The passenger business paid $34,000,000, and freight $101,000,000. There were 217 persons killed and 700 injured by the roads. The highest gross earnings in any previous year was in 1879, when they were $110,000,000, and in the same year the net earnings were $47,000,000. Six of the roads carried over 9,000,000 passengers in one year. Some of the roads doubled their net earnings over the preceding year.

WHEN the last democratic mayor of Philadelphia went out of office, the total debt of the city was $48,791,864. This was in 1870. In eight years republican administrations have run the debt up to $73,000,000, and the expense of running the department has been increased by $3,000,000 every year. There is an independent movement in the city to overthrow the ring at the February election.

SINCE the opening of the present term of the supreme court of the United States, it has made unusually rapid progress through the docket. There is no probability that any of the justices of the court will retire from the bench at present. It is understood Justice Strong and Swayne are both desirous of giving up their positions as soon as they can do so without leaving the bench in a crippled condition, but the announcement of any particular date for their retirement is premature. It is more than probable they will retain their seats on the bench until the end of the present term.

CURRENT OPINION.

Toledo Bee: It is thought that President Hayes may realize a handsome income by transferring the civil service reform plant to his Fremont home and selling graftings to the grangers, through the medium of Monsieur Le Duc's pumpkin department of the government.

Pittsburg Post: In his annual report the attorney-general suggests that congress should enact a law which shall take into the control of United States officials all elections for members of congress. Would it not be as well to enact a law that none but republicans be elected to congress?

St. Louis Republican: Let it be understood from the start that there will be no extra session of congress, unless the republican party forces it. The democracy will do their full duty this winter to put through all the necessary legislation, and it will be through no fault of theirs if the country is afflicted with the disturbance and expense of an extra and unnecessary session of the new congress.

London, Eng., Times: The finances of the United States may excite the envy of not only England but of Europe. The unprecedented rate of redemption is having its national effect in raising the credit of the United States to a level with the most stable and best paying communities of the old world. In reaching that level the United States will only attain a rightful position. A country which is so faithful to its engagements where resources are so limitless and whose population increases with such remarkable rapidity ought to enjoy the best credit accorded to any state. In all probability should the conditions remain favorable, Secretary Sherman will accomplish his refunding operation at a rate nearer three than four percent. The very rapidity with which he is able to pay off the debt must aid him most materially by reducing the supply of stock. This acting pari passu with the augmenting demand for sound investments will give him an incalculable advantage in his operations.

Indianapolis Sentinel: Will some one who is familiar with the facts please obtain the figures showing how much money the United States Government has paid General Grant for his services. The impression seems to have gone forth that he has worked for nothing and found himself.

Chicago Times: The representative from Toledo, Mr. Hurd, has done exactly the right thing. He has introduced in the house an equivocal challenge of our robber tariff system, setting forth succinctly its iniquitous character, demanding its discontinuance and the substitution of the tariff for revenue only.

MALT UNFERMENTED MALT BITTERS

TRADE MARK

Half-Bottle Company

MALT AND HOPS BITTERS

THE AGED.—Mental and physical debility of the aged begins with loss of appetite and sleep. These two potent causes of premature and rapid decline have their origin in DEXTERIVE NUTRITION and IMPROVERISHED BLOOD. All other ailments may be warded off if these be restored to condition of health. To accomplish this beneficial purpose, MALT BITTERS are superior to all other forms of malt and medicine. They are rich in bone and fat-producing materials. They vitulize with new life the process of digestion. They dissolve and assimilate every article of food, thereby strengthening and purifying the blood. They feed the brain as well as the blood, banishing nervousness, melancholy and sleeplessness. For every form of debility of both mind and body of the aged, MALT BITTERS are the purest and safest restorative in medicine.

MALT BITTERS are prepared without fermentation, from Canadian BARLEY MALT and HOPS, and are free from the objections urged against malt liquors. Ask for MALT BITTERS prepared by the MALT BITTERS COMPANY, and see that every bottle bears the TRADE MARK LABEL, duly signed and enclosed in wave lines as seen in cut.

MALT BITTERS are for sale by all Druggists.

Judge Gresham has gained a reputation here for the manner in which he expedites business, that some of our judges might imitate to great advantage. Judge Gresham allows no bickering among the lawyers, nor does he allow a witness to stray away from the straight line of the story—or testimony in the case.

The county commissioners yesterday accepted the report of the viewers of the Rockhill ditch in Lake township and audited sundry bills. Today road matters and reports from viewers are before the board and will occupy their attention all day. Tomorrow ditch matters will again occupy their attention.

Jones, the photographer wants it distinctly understood that the article in Saturday's SENTINEL, had no reference to his gallery, as he imports no New York work. He makes and displays his own samples, and takes a back seat for no one. He employs the best of talent only, and all his pictures are finished by thoroughly competent artists.

In conversation with one of the members of the firm of Root & Co., yesterday, a SENTINEL reporter was informed that the price of seal skin goods has advanced so that they are wholesome now for more in New York than the merchants are asking at retail for them in the west, consequently the loss to this firm may be imagined when it is known that it is almost impossible to replace the line of goods, stolen from them a few days ago, on account of the scarcity in the eastern markets.

When John McCain, of the Home billiard room, presented Jay Phillips with the diamond shirt stud, the other day, he went at it in this style:
"When, in the course of human events, the eternal sun shines down on the rich and poor alike and would shed—would shed, would shed?" (A voice cries out "Never mind the word-shed, but go on with the speech.")—"and it becomes the duty of us all to remember one another, I herewith present you with this diamond stud as a small token of my respect." Jay doubled up like a jackknife, they straightened out, rolled up his sleeves, spit on his hands and replied: "I am taken by surprise, but rest assured, gentlemen, I appreciate this highly, and will say—say—lets take a—walk." The boys groaned, with all the self-complac-ence and Jay, Brummel, fastened renewal of a Beau—shirt front, the stud in his bosom—where it sparkle, and causes tears to drop from the eyes of the boot black.

THE MATINEE

Given by His Honor the Mayor this Morning.

The mayor held his usual levee this morning, and at roll call James Mahony answered "here" in his usual affable manner. The frown on his honorable brow deepened as he asked James if it was possible that he had called to make him a visit so soon, as it had only been yesterday morning that he had promised to quit drinking and go to work like a man if he could only "have a chance." "Did you not get free yesterday on the promise of future good behavior?" said his honor, and James was obliged to acknowledge the corn, but said that owing to his honor would only give him another chance. "Yes," remarked the mayor, as he dipped his pen in the ink and made it fly over the paper with the rapidity of the wind, "you won't get drunk again for the next fifteen days." "Thank you, your honor is a gentle," and then James seemed to grasp the idea that those fifteen days of total abstinence meant his incarceration in the bastille, and his tongue grew heavy, his breath came thick and fast, if Deputy Falter had not said "Stand aside," James would have —said something new. As he was being led from the hall of justice he thought fit to fire a parting salute at the mayor, and his honor, not to be outdone in generosity by a drunken man, called him back and added fifteen days to his sentence. James will now receive his visit from Santa Clause at the residence of Sheriff Cosgrove, where all who have been making nice little toys to amuse him, may call, and Dick Meyers will show them the room occupied by James.

John Daily, a Valparaiso genius, arrived up next and explained to his honor that this was the first time he had ever been in the hands of the law, and that yesterday was the anniversary of his landing in America.
Twenty-five years ago, John has been in the employment of the Pittsburgh road, and was afraid he would lose his job if sent over. The mayor gave him eight days in the stone works, but suspended judgment during good behavior. John smiled, bowed his thanks and departed.

granted. Judge Julian, of Indianapolis, appeared for plaintiff, Combs, Morris, Bell, Dawson and others for the defence. The other cases were continued until next term of court which occurs the first Tuesday in June.

A BAD CROWD

Visit a Barr Street Saloon Last Night and Make it Lively for the Boss.

Last night at about 10 o'clock the saloon of Mr. Joseph Leifel, on Barr street, was visited by a party of four who proceeded to run things to suit themselves. The crowd consisted of two young bloods and two of the demi monde. Mr. Leifel did not know any one of the party, and waited on them with his usual sauity of manner, until the female portion of the crew became very obscene and vulgar, when he remonstrated with them, and asked them to quiet down or he would be obliged to show them the door. This seemed to raise the ire of the females and Mr. Leifel was treated to a dose of beer poured down his shirt collar. Here is where we want to call the attention of every American citizen to the fact that no man will stand to have ice cold beer poured down his back with the thermometer below zero, and Joe did not want to stand it either, but while one of the fair, but frail damsels was emptying her mug of beer down the front of Joe's shirt the other one gave him a glass down the back of the aforesaid garment and held him until it was well rubbed in. Mr. Leifel seized one of the females and started toward the door with her, when the fun grew furious and fast and beer, glasses, beer, lunch and such things filled the air and whistled past the head of the proprietor, breaking four of the large windows in the front part of the saloon and frightening the bar tender until each individual hair stood on end. One young man, a boarder at Mr. Leifel's place, had his fine suit of clothes smeared over with mustard until he resembled a ham sander, and Joe, with beer oozing out of his boots, knew not what to make of the affair. The young men of the party finally got the female element under control and marched them-off, but Mr. Leifel called for an officer and Lieutenant Wilkinson came and placed the whole party under arrest and marched them to the calaboose, which place he finally reached with his "haul."

DID HIS DUTY?

The scene changes—Mr. Leifel had retired to bed—a thundering knock heard on the outer doors of his castle —saloon, and in response to the inquiry, "who is there?" the reply came:
"Me, a policeman." Mr. Leifel immediately descended the stairs and asked what was wanted, when the policeman replied that he wished to make an examination as to the amount of damage done, and was admitted to the saloon. After surveying the broken windows, the smashed beer mugs, the wrecked lunch table and all the rest of the wreck and ruin, this patrolman, in the most heart-rending and sympathetic language induced Mr. Leifel to forego prosecuting the case and persuaded him to have the whole party released from the clutches of the law. In other words, "He came, he saw, he conquered," and the flat went forth to restore liberty to the prisoners from dance vice and once more the mob were permitted to roam the streets and pollute the air with their presence and foul breaths, and but for the sober second thought the quartet would have escaped their justly deserved punishment.

AFFIDAVITS SWORN OUT.

Mr. Leifel, who is a good, law-abiding citizen, this morning appeared before the mayor and in an affidavit charged Charles Muldon, Harry Moritz, Maud Warner and Josie Warner with riotous and unlawful conduct, and violating the ordinances of the city and the laws of the state.
Writs were made out for the arrest of Muldon and Moritz for associating with prostitutes, and against Maud and Josie Warner for creating a disturbance, and their bonds fixed in the sum of $20 each. The trial is set for 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, when the mayor will teach them a lesson that, it is to be hoped, may make an impression on some of the party and induce them hereafter to avoid bad associates and try to emulate the worthy example set them by their parents. It has been customary heretofore, with the papers of the city, to suppress the names of parties who have from time to time been brought before the police court on charges of this character. And it is indeed a painful task to lacerate the feelings of good, kind parents and friends with a recital of the wrongs of those who seem to plunge in all kinds of dissipation, but it is a duty that every true journalist should perform and warn all young boys and girls that the way of the transgressor is hard. This is not the first time that every one connected with this affair has been in the clutches of the law on similar charges, therefore we have no hesitancy in giving their names as they appear on the writs issued for their arrest. The entire party will have to give bail or go to the calaboose ere the readers of THE SENTINEL peruse this article and to-morrow morning they will be given a chance to increase the funds in the treasurer's office or board it with Sheriff Cosgrove at the county's expense.

C. M. Barton, esq. Mr. Mason is en route to Troy, New York, where he has accepted a pulpit in the Christian church.

We find that the only true way to preach the Golden Rule is to practice it; at least such seems to be the way of Rev. Mr. F. M. Winburne, pastor M. E. church South Mexico, Texas, who writes as follows: Several months since I received a supply of St. Jacobs Oil. Retaining two bottles, I distributed the rest among my friends.
It is a most excellent remedy for pains and aches of various kinds, especially neuralgia and rheumatic affections.

distinctly understood that the article
in Saturday's SENTINEL, had no reference to his gallery, as he imports
the best talent only, and all his pictures are finished by thoroughly
competent artists.

Friday, December 31, is to be a great day in the history of Chaska's notion emporium. Those God fearing individuals, the reporters, will be there to superintend the grand drawing for the beautiful doll and hobby horse which for the past three weeks have been objects of much comment, on the part of all entering Mr. Chas-ka's store. Those articles are the finest that have ever been brought to this city, and the grand drawing will be quite an event. Chaska's store at present is a maze of toys, notions and fancy goods. At every turn the eye meets nothing but goods of all kinds, and it is really wonderful how so many goods can be crowded into such a small place, but the prices are what catch "em." Sam Chaska's prices have made his reputation as a notion dealer, and he proposes to maintain this reputation by a still greater reduction in prices. Now the time for making presents is fast approaching, and if you would delight the heart of some near and dear friend by making him or her a useful and ornamental yet economical gift, call on Chaska. He has presents for the million. By the way, don't wait, go at once, by purchasing now you can secure a chance or two in the grand drawing. Who knows but you may be the lucky one? By all means go and purchase at once.
